

INTRODUCTION

All the King's Horses is a biblical story written by Ingrid M. Griggs using the outcomes approach.

It is suggested teachers/parents read the story to the students. Students can complete the worksheets by themselves, with the help of the teacher/parent or re-read the story themselves to confirm their answers if in doubt. Make several copies of the story for distribution among the students.

The stories and worksheets cover the following learning areas:

English

- Speaking and listening
- Reading
- Comprehension
- Writing
- Source information

Arts

- Communicating arts ideas
- Using arts skills, technologies and techniques

Society and Environment

- Investigating places and people
- Cultural understanding

Health and Physical Education

- Develop interpersonal skills

Mathematics

- Map reading skills