- I buzz around your head - a bee
- You use me to write with - a pen
- I can fly - a bird
- I give milk - a cow

Suggested Activities:

- ❖ Play the 'Who Am I' game. One student stands in front of the class and gives one clue. The other students have to guess who he/she is. Let students take turns.
- ❖ Split the class into small groups. Each group writes several 'Who am I' clues on a piece of paper. When they have finished the questions give the paper to another group who must try and guess the answers. Which group makes the most challenging questions?
- ❖ Students could make rhyming words from flash cards you hold up in front of the class. This can be done orally or as a competition. Split the class into small groups. Which group can write the most rhyming words?
