

Name: _____

Capital letters

Underline the words which should start with a capital letter.

Jim went for a walk early in the morning. he saw the milkman on the corner of smith street and James street. he stopped at the stop sign. The butcher was busy placing fresh meat in the window. nodding to the butcher, jim walked around the block giving way to a car when he crossed second avenue. When he came home, his wife ellie had made him breakfast. she had cooked him bacon and eggs. Something they often had when they still lived in england. Now they live in australia and they still like their bacon and eggs. Jim and ellie came to live in australia ten years ago. When they moved to perth from sydney they thought it was really nice. they like living in Perth and jim enjoys walking through smith street and james street most mornings.

How long ago did Jim and Ellie come to Australia? _____

Which two people did Jim see on his walk? _____

Where did Jim and Ellie live before they came to Perth? _____

Through which two streets does Jim walk in the mornings? _____

Which town or city do you live in? _____

Draw a picture of your town or city. Write some street names on your drawing and tell what these streets mean to you. Is it where you live? Is your school there? Does your grandma live there?

Don't forget the capital letters!