

Name: _____

Below is written the same in German as in English. Can you make any sense of the German sentences?

After reading the story, find the things in the ovals below, in books or on a multimedia encyclopedia.

Deutsch

Der Turm der Michaeliskirche, der Michel, ist das Wahrzeichen der Hansestadt. Wer den Turm besteigt, dem liegt Hamburg zu Füßen. Ganz nah der Hafen mit den Landungsbrücken und der U-Bahn auf Stelzen, ferner die Außenalster und ganz fern die Hügel am Nordufer der Elbe.

English

The spire of the Michaeliskirche, also known as the Michel, is a Hamburg hallmark. The view from the top is one of Hamburg at your feet, with landmarks such as Landungsbrücken, the harbour and the overground riverside U-Bahn close by, and further afield the Outer Alster and the hills that line the north bank of the Elbe.

Map of Germany

Elbe River
(on a map)

Hamburg
(on a map)

A picture of a
U-Bahn

Michaeliskirche
(Michel church)