

Name _____

Type the numbers from the story on a calculator. Turn the calculator upside down and the numbers become words. Replace the numbers with the words displaying on your calculator to read the story.

Example: Write 3045 on a calculator, turn it upside down, it says SHOE.

©www.teachingtreasures.com.au

5538 535007 her 53045 all the time.

First 345 lost them in the 604 pen and they squashed them under a 607.

Another time 345 lost them in the 35336 pen and 345 landed on the 608.

After that 345 got very 771 and 7718 helped her to get well.

Last month 345 dropped her 53045 down a 3704 and broke one of her 5637.

After that accident 345 never lost her 53045 again.

The end