Above is written a colour. Ask a friend what this colour means to him/her. What does it represent to your friend? Does the colour make your friend happy, sad, angry or feel good.

Take notes from your friend's answers. After you have taken notes, draw a picture based upon your notes using only the colour written above. This is an exercise in interpreting someone else's ideas and expressing them through your drawing.

Write your notes below and draw your picture on a separate piece of paper.

♦ Remember, only use a red colour pencil. Try using shadows and light.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
