

Name _____

An interjection is used to express exclamation.

Example: Watch out! There is a fire.
'Watch out!' is the interjection.

Underline the interjections in each sentence.

1. Look out! The fire is hot.
2. Help! I don't know how to light a fire.
3. Hello! What is burning?
4. Watch out! There is a fire in the house.
5. Yippee! The fire truck is coming.
6. Oh! Where is it?
7. Hello! What happened here?
8. Wow! What huge flames.
9. Watch out! It is getting out of control.
10. Strewth! It is a raging fire.
11. Hello! Did the firemen put it out?
12. Oh! It is all over, let's go home.

