

Name _____

A noun is a person,
place or thing.

Example: The hammer is here.

The word 'hammer' is a noun.

There can be more than one noun in a sentence.

Example: The hammer is on the path.

The words 'hammer' and 'path' are nouns.

Underline the nouns in each sentence.

1. The hammer is in the shed.
2. Did the hammer drop on the floor?
3. Where is the hammer?
4. Jim gave the hammer to Sam.
5. Sam uses a hammer and nails to hang the painting.
6. There are many hammers in the shop for sale.
7. The big hammer is better than the little hammer.
8. Kate and Sarah know how to use a hammer.
9. The wall was damaged by a hammer, not a saw.
10. Show the boys where the hammers are.
11. The girls know about hammers and other tools.
12. A hammer is not a toy, it is a tool.