Banished

In some countries in Europe, many years ago, when you did something bad you were often banished to another country or small island where no one lived except birds, rabbits and maybe a few wild animals. You were not allowed to leave and often could never return to your homeland again. For a lot of people this was a terrible punishment because they were separated from their families and loved ones. They were only allowed to take with them a few personal things to survive. They had to start a new life in a strange country with people who spoke a language they didn't understand or they had to survive on a deserted island.

Imagine you are banished to a deserted island and you are only allowed to take 5 items with you that you can carry. Write down the things you would take and why you would take those items. Use the back of your paper if you don't have enough space.
