

Name _____

Norfolk Island

Norfolk Island was established as a convict settlement in 1788 and is a territory of Australia located in the Pacific Ocean, 1676 km (1040 miles) east-north-east of Sydney. This delightful place is of volcanic origin with Mount Pitt and Mount Bates dominating the island.

What is a convict settlement? _____

How long ago was Norfolk Island established as a convict settlement? _____

What does it mean when we talk about volcanic origin?

Why does Norfolk Island have the same flag as Australia?

Make a visual diary of Norfolk Island:

Locate several newspaper articles about Norfolk Island. These can be related to Government, latest issues, environment or Norfolk Islanders. Create a visual diary using the newspaper clippings and write your own comments, thoughts and ideas about the newspaper issue next to it.

Try one of these web sites for further information.

- <http://www.norfolkisland.com.au>
- <http://www.discovernorfolkisland.com>