

Name _____

Draw the following clouds in the boxes below.

Cirrus clouds are high and wispy.	Cumulus clouds are fluffy and white.

Stratus clouds are low and grey.

A scientist who study's the weather and makes weather forecasts is called a... ?

Cross out the word that does not belong.

atmosphere, troposphere, bathyscaphe, cumulonimbus

Sunshine, wind, rain and snow are all types of weather which you could find in different places all over the world. The type of weather in an area determines the type of climate and how it effects the land. Fill in what type of weather you could expect to find in the following places.

DESERT	RAINFOREST	MOUNTAINS

Describe the type of weather you had yesterday.

Describe today's weather and make a forecast about tomorrow's weather.

Yesterday
Today
Tomorrow	