You are asked by a major, European tourist bureau to give an accurate, detailed report of your region. They want to publish these details in their newsletter which is given to people who wish to come to Australia for holidays. Use and paste at least one picture of each point listed below to spruce up your report. You could try a travel agency or tourist bureau for some free pamphlets and brochures. Explain to the person in charge why you would like some free pamphlets. Don't just take them! Some brochures you must buy.

Include the following points:

Landform Region

- is it a plain, plateau, mountain or hill.
