

Cut out the boxes and glue under the correct heading (part of speech) in your exercise book.

Used for naming a person,
animal, place or thing.

Used to refer to a person or thing without giving a name, replaces a noun.

Used to describe a noun or pronoun.

Often called a 'doing' word.
Used to describe action or existence.

Used generally to modify (tell you more about) a verb, but can tell you more about any word other than a noun or pronoun.

Used for showing what one person or thing has to do with another person or thing, usually where they are in relation to one another.

Used to join words and clauses.

Used to express exclamation.